INDEX

TO THE

TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SEVENTH VOLUME OF THE QUARTERLY REVIEW.

[Titles of Articles are printed in heavier type. The names of authors of articles are printed in italics.]

A.

Africa, South, views on Imperial Unity, 135–145. See Imperial.

Agricultural Cooperation in Germany, 424. See Germany.

Agriculture, The State and, 178—result of Committees on food production, 179—policy in France, 180–185—provision of machinery, 180—supply of fertilisers, 182—facilities of railway transport, ib.—work of Credit Societies, 183—policy in Italy, 185—Germany, ib.—Great Britain, 186—Ireland, 187–193.

Aircraft Politics in War Time, 203—charges against the Royal Flying Corps, 203–205—attacks on the personnel and the matériel, 206—causes for the agitation, 207—hardship of the aeroplane makers, 209—campaign against the designers of Government aeroplanes, 210–213—method of discrediting, 213–215—manufacturing in war time, 216–218—number required, 218.

Allies, The Fleets of Our, 461. See Fleets.

Ammon, Otto, 'Die Gesellschaftsordnung und ihre natürlichen Grundlagen,' extract from, 19.

Archives of the War, The, 494—preservation of historical documents, 495—personal papers, ib.—inspection of State papers closed to historians, 496—result of Committees, 497—neglect of Governments to encourage the study, 498—proposed collection of materials, 499—the Victorian period, 500—Public Record Commission reports, 501–503—methods of the Rolls House, 501—destruction of documents, 502—method in Germany, 503—indifference of the departments to historical learning, 504—proposed system of dealing with the records, 505–508—need for trained archivists, 506, 508—criticisms of the Records Commission, 509.

Army, British, military operations on the Western front, 246.

Arnold, Matthew, interest in wild-flowers, 446.

Ashley, W. J., 'German Steel and Iron,' 542.

Asquith, Rt Hon. H. H., character of his administration, 232—resignation, 239—on the investigations of the War Council, 518—defence of his policy, 525–527.

Australia, views on Imperial Unity, 113–125. See Imperial.

Austria-Hungary, relations with Italy, 372—strength of the navy, 471—bombardment of Cattaro, 473—attacks on the shores of the Adriatic, 474.

B.

Bagdad Railway, 149, 155–157.

Balfour, Rt Hon. A. J., on the magnitude of the work of the Navy, 109—on the advantages of an attack on the Dardanelles, 520.

Bethmann-Hollweg, Herr von, on the terms of peace, 264–266.

Biddulph, General Sir R., High Commissioner of Cyprus, 403, 421—his Report, 412, 413.

Billet, A., 'La France et l'Italie,' 370.

Birth-rate, result of voluntary restriction, 29.

Blood, Colonel, 'The Course of the War,' 245, 570.

Boldensele, William of, narrative of his pilgrimage to Palestine, 341–344.

Bovenschen, Dr A., 'Untersuchungen über Johann von Mandeville,' 332.

Bülow, Prince von, 'Imperial Germany,' 267.

Burton, Mr, on an Imperial Parliament, 139.

C.

Cahill, J. R., 'Agricultural Credit and Agricultural Cooperation in Germany,' 427–429.

Canada, views on Imperial Unity, 452. See Imperial.

Capital, proposal to tax, 174–176.

Caprivi, General von, on cutting off supplies in war, 106.

Chamberlain, Rt Hon. A., on the Indian cotton duty, 530.

China, Some Tibetan Abbeys in, 59—the Tibetan Marches, ib.—relations between, 60—population of the Empire, 61—Jô-ni, 62–70—the Abbey, 63—office of the Abbot, 64—the Living Buddhas, 65—meaning of the term 'manifestation,' 66—the Sacred Body of Nâlang, 67—training of the Living Buddha, 68–70—Labrang, 70—Gumbum, 71—Abbot Squint-eyes, 72—Halls of Heaven, 74—procession of pilgrims, 75—practices of Lamaism, 76—Abbey of Chebson, ib.

Christian Belief and Immortality, 1. See Immortality.

Churchill, Rt Hon. W., evidence at the Dardanelles Commission, 513—plan of a naval attack, 516, 519.

Claudel, The Works of Paul, 78—characteristics of his writings, 79—influence of his philosophic convictions, 80—'Tête d'Or,' 81—'La Ville,' ib.—'Cinq Grands Odes,' 82, 85—religious views, 82, 89—conception of poetical technique, 83—mastery of rhythm in his prose, 84—'La Jeune Fille Violaine,' 85—'L'Annonce faite à Marie,' ib.—'L'Otage,' 87—'Vers d'Exil,' ib.—'Cette Heure qui est entre le Printemps et l'Été,' 90—'Corona Benignitatis Anni Dei,' 91—'Trois Poèmes de Guerre,' 92—'Aux Morts de la République,' 94.

Coalition Ministry, 219, 226—character, 220, 229—fall, 220, 233, 240.

'Complot pacifiste,' 277—extract from, 278.

'Cosmos,' articles by, 280, 282.

Cowell, Prof., interest in wildflowers, 449.

Crabbe, George, allusions to wildflowers in his poems, 444–446.

Crewe, Lord, on the Indian cotton duty, 530.

Cromer, Earl of, Chairman of the Dardanelles Commission, 511.

Curtis, Mr, 'Problems of the Commonwealth,' 141.

Curzon, Lord, on the Indian cotton duty, 530.

Cyprus under British Rule, 401—Convention between Great Britain and Turkey, 401, 402—annexation, 403—area, 404—mountain ranges, and wildflowers, ib.—temperature, 405—population, ib.—religions, 406—system of administration, ib.—Legislative Council, 407—Military Police, ib.—administration of justice, 408–411—Land, 411—the Evqaf, ib.—Education, 412–414—Revenue and Taxation, 414, 421—Trade, 415 — Agriculture, 416 — methods of irrigation, 417 — remedies for the plague of locusts, ib.—Forestry, 418—minerals, 419—Public Health, ib. — Roads and Harbours, 420—steamers, ib.—the Press, 421—the Turkish Tribute, ib.—views of the Greek Cypriotes and the Moslems, 423.

D.

Danish Duchies, question of the, 393–396, 399.

Dardanelles Report, The, 511—the First Report, 512—policy of Lord Kitchener, 512, 526—position of the expert members of the Council, 513—methods of Lord Kitchener, 514—views of the Junior Sea Lords, 515—reasons for the demonstration at the Dardanelles, 516–518—views of Mr Churchill, 518, 521—views of members of the Council, 520—Adm. de Robeck, 522—Sir Ian Hamilton, ib.—Enver Pasha, 523—Supplementary Report, 524 — responsibility of Mr Asquith, 525–527—reasons for the failure, 527.

Darwin, Charles, his theory of natural selection, 17—'Descent of Man,' 21.

Darwin, Major L., 'On the Statistical Enquiries needed after the War in connection with Eugenics,' 28.

'De Burger,' article on 'Where is Imperialism leading us?' 137.

Debt, Our National, 160—result of wars, 161–163—amount of the unfunded debt, 163—issue of loans, 164–167—prognostications of national ruin, 167—annual income, 168—foreign trade, ib.—amount of the debt charge, 169—methods of dealing with the problem, 170—views of Socialists, ib.—State purchase of Railways and Canals, 171—Coal Mines, 172 — Life Insurance, 173—income-tax graduation scheme, 174—taxation of capital, 174–176.

Delane, J. T., editor of the 'Times,' 359, 363—responsibility for blunders, 365.

Denmark, cooperative creameries, 190.

Dominion Views on Imperial Unity, 113, 452. See Imperial.

Düring, Prof., 'Deutschland und die Türkei,' 146, 149, 154.

E.

Egypt, cotton trade, 538.

Eliot, Dr C. W., correspondence with J. Schiff, 274—'The Road toward Peace,' 275.

Escott, T. H. S., 'Old and New in the Daily Press,' 353.

Essen, Admiral von, naval policy, 465.

F.

Fabian Research Department, 'How to Pay for the War,' 36 note.

Farrer, Reginald, 'Some Tibetan Abbeys in China,' 59.

Fawkes, Alfred, 'The Pontificate of Pius X,' 477.

Fisher, Lord, position on the War Council, 513—policy in the East, 520, 526.

Fleet, British, work of the, 463.

Fleets, The, of Our Allies, 461—strategy adopted by the Central Powers, 462 — contrast between warfare at sea and on land, ib.—strength of the British Fleet, 463—the Russian Navy, 463–470—construction of ships, 464—policy of Admiral von Essen, 465—engagements with the enemy, 466 — attacks of German submarines, ib.—attacks on the Gulf of Riga, 467–469—the Gulf of Finland, 469—French Fleet in the Mediterranean, 470–473 — disappearance of the 'Goeben' and 'Breslau,' 472 — Italian Fleet, 473–475—Japanese Fleet, 475.

Fokker, inferiority to English machines, 207 note.

France, result of war on the race, 22–24 — agricultural policy, 180, 196–199—provision of machinery, 180—supply of fertilisers, 182—facilities of railway transport, ib.—work of Credit Societies, 183—military operations against Germany, 248, 573–575.

France, The Rural Prosperity of, 314—variety of climates, 315—system of land-tenure, ib.—conditions in Provence, 316—the Pyrenees, 317—Touraine, ib.—Normandy, 318—total area of acres, 318—number of agricultural workers, 318, 323—success due to advantages of climate and soil, 319–321—history of the development, 321—population, 321–323—Law of Inheritance, 322, 329—result of the protective tariff, 323—exodus of the agricultural labourer, ib.—increase in the number of small holdings, 324–326—profits of market-gardeners, 326—of farming, ib.—number of proprietors, 327—'Caisses Régionales' and 'Caisses Locales Affiliées,' 328—condition of the peasantry, 329.

France, result of the proclamation of the Regency of Tunisia, 372—relations with Italy, 375—work of the navy, 470–473—relations of the Church with Pope Pius X, 484.

Franco-German War, The Origins of the, 389—works on, 390–392—Commission appointed, 391—diplomacy of the Second Empire, 392—influence of a secret diplomacy, ib.—question of the Danish Duchies, 393–396, 399—date of the events, 395—plan of the work, 396–399—sources of information, 398—result of the partition of Poland, 399.

Fullerton, W. M., 'The American Crisis and the War,' 288.

G.

Gamble, J., 'Immortality and Christian Belief,' 1.

Gard, Roger Martin du, 'Jean Barois,' extract from, 487.

George III, King, commissions for pictures to J. Zoffany, 44, 46—dispute with him, 48.

George, Rt Hon. D. Lloyd, forms an Administration, 239—interview with an American journalist, 279—policy in the East, 520.

German Steel and Iron, 542—growth of the industry, 543—annexation of the Lorraine ore-field, ib.—character of scientific experts, 544—criticism of British methods, 545—enterprising iron-masters, ib.—result of tariff measures, 546—output of pig-iron, 547, 550—Westphalian Coal Syndicate, 548—formation of 'Cartels,' 548, 550—combination, the outcome of unlimited competition, 549—result of the Enquiry in 1903..550—decline and rise in the production, 551—the 'Stahlwerksverband,' 552—work of the combine, ib.—series of bounties system, 554.

German War Literature on the Near and Middle East, 144—two main trends of thought, ib.—relations with Turkey, 146—expulsion of the British from Egypt, ib.—proposals in regard to Turkey's future, 147–149—Constantinople the 'Gate of the East,' 149—the Main-Danube Canal, 151—views of Prof. Hettner, 152–154—Prof. Düring, 154—Prof. Roloff, ib.—the Bagdad Railway, 155–157—Commercial plans in the Arabian Peninsula, 157—number of foreign schools in Turkey, 158—views of Prof. Jäckh, ib.

Germany, Agricultural Cooperation in, 424—result of the law regulating maximum prices of necessities, 424–426—average total production, 426—the Chambers of Agriculture, 427–429—voluntary cooperative societies, 429–432—distribution of feeding-stuffs, 432—potato supply, 433–435—war loans, 435—price and distribution of food-supplies, 436—relations between industrial and agricultural cooperators, 437—meeting of the Central Union of German Consumers' Societies, 438.

Germany, character of the naval policy, 461—bombardment of Libau, 463—submarine attacks, 466—attacks on the Gulf of Riga, 467–469—the Gulf of Finland, 469—defeated at Tsing-tao, 475—relations with Pope Pius X, 488—War Library, 499—character of the archives, 503—retreat from the Ancre valley, 571–573, 575—air-service, 576—reasons for the retreat, 577–580—projected operations in Italy, 580—result of the submarine war, 583.

Germany, The United States and Peace, 263—views of Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg, 264–266—Prince von Bülow, 267—other leaders of thought, 268–270—the press, 270–272—propaganda in the United States, 273, 285—correspondence of J. Schiff with Dr Eliot, 274–276—communication to Pres. Wilson of the terms of peace, 278—character of the peace note, 295.

Germany, views on the effect of war on humanity, 19—rise of the navy, 96—inactivity of the fleet, 97—blockade, 99, 105–107—operations of cruisers, 103—success of the submarines, 104—method of drawing supplies, 107—policy of food production, 185—use of self-contained ploughs, 199—military operations on the Western front, 246–249, 570–575, 590—Italian, 250—Macedonian, 250–253—Russian, 253, 581—in Rumania, 253–261—negotiations for peace, 261—relations with Italy, 374.

Gray, Thomas, interest in botany, 444.

Great Britain, number of acres under cultivation, 318—agricultural workers, 318, 322—population, 321, 328—adoption of Free Trade, 322—position in commerce, 329—relations with Italy, 375, 387—iron and steel industry, 542—competition with Germany, 543—creative inventions, 544—criticism of methods, 545—output of iron, 547, 551—reconstruction of Associations, 553—policy of international agreement, 556.

Greece, relations with Italy, 380, 386.

Grey, C. G., Editor of 'The Aeroplane,' 203, 210 note, 212 note.

H.

Haller, Prof., 'Deutschland und der Osten,' extract from, 151.

Hamber, Capt. Thomas, editor of the 'Standard,' 356.

Hamelius, Paul, 'The Travels of Sir John Mandeville,' 331.

Headlam, J. W., 'The Issue,' 264, 269—preface to 'Imperial Germany,' 267.

Hertzog, General, views on Imperial Unity, 138.

Hettner, Prof. A., 'Die Ziele unsere Weltpolitik,' extract from, 148, 152–154.

Hort, Prof., study of botany, 448.

Hughes, Rt Hon. W. M., on Imperial Unity, 113.

Hurd, Archibald, 'The Fleets of Our Allies,' 461.

Hutton, J. A., Chairman of the Council of the British Cotton-growing Association, 536 note.

I.

Immortality and Christian Belief, 1—views on the future life, 1–5—threatened extinction of the belief, 6, 10—eternity of future punishment, 6–8—justice of retribution, 8—interpretation of the Old Testament, ib.—the New, 9—scientific proof, 11—belief in a better life, 12—the Hebrew belief, 13—desire for the preservation of personal identity, 14—firm confidence in the ultimate solution of problems, 15.

Imperial Conference, 119.

Imperial Defence, Committee of, 120.

Imperial Unity, Dominion Views on, 113—(1) Australia, ib.—economic development, 114—establishment of federation, 115—foundation of a system of defence, ib.—advantages and disadvantages of self-government, 116–118—liability involved by membership of the Empire, 118—result of the Imperial Conference, 119—the Committee of Imperial Defence, 120—proposed scheme of union, 121–125—disadvantages of the confederate system, 122—(2) New Zealand, 125—views on a closer union, ib.—result of an Imperial Parliament, 126—declines to enter the Commonwealth, 127—number of representatives, 128—disadvantages of a written constitution, ib.—spirit of the people, 130—visits of Prime Ministers to London, 131—future trade relations, ib.—payment of income tax, 132—benefits of educational exchange, 133—advantages of cheaper cables, 134—(3) South Africa, 135 — attitude of the Nationalist party, 135-139 — the Unionist party, 139—views of Mr Merriman, 140—Mr Curtis, 'Problem of the Commonwealth,' 141-143—(4) Canada, 452—four periods of history, ib.—influence of the British settlers, 453 — phase of mechanical development, 454—influence of the mid-Victorian philosophy of laissez-faire, 455—teaching of Dr G. Parkin, 456—basic quality of thought, 457—attitude of French-Canadians, 457-459—points of agreement, 459.

Income, National, estimate, 168.

Income tax, reform, 32-36—graduation scheme, 174.

India, Industrial Movement in, 297—poverty of the people, 298—preponderance of agriculture, ib.—population, 299—number of cotton and jute factories, 300 — exotic origin of the modern development, 301—swadeshi movement, 302—extension of the banking system, ib.—importance of time, 303—question of land, 304—supply of capital, 305, 309—of labour, 306—low standard of life, 307—scarcity of competent managers, ib.—demand for State-assistance, 308-312 — case of the aluminium industry in Madras, 311—the steel-city, ib.—effects of a tariff, 312.

Indian Cotton Duties, 528—war loan, ib.—Tariff Act of 1894..529—amount of the cotton duty, 530—views against the excise duty, ib.—need for the increase of the excise duties, 532—analysis of the division in the House of Commons, 533—conditions of the handloom industry, 534-536—competition with Lancashire and Japan, 535—conditions of the Lancashire industry, 536-539—amount of cotton exported, 539—difficulty of tariff relations, 540—need for a fair adjustment, ib.

Industrial Movement in India, 297. See India.

Ireland, agricultural policy, 187-191—control of the railways, 192—outbreak of rebellion, 231.

Irish Problem, The, 558—pleas for the urgency of a settlement, 558-560—the Ulster difficulty, 560—natural conditions, 562 — human conditions, ib.—need to ascertain what Ireland wants, 563—Primrose Report, 564—control of trade policy, 565—reasons against such a claim, ib.—Imperial considerations, 567—removal of Irish representatives from the House of Commons, ib.—classification of affairs to be dealt with, 568.

Iron and Steel Industry of Great Britain, 542—United States, 543—Germany, 543-557.

'Italiana, La Politica Estera,' 371.

Italy, agricultural policy, 185—military operations against Austria-Hungary, 250—work of the navy, 473-475.

Italy, the Foreign Policy of, 369—works on, 370—result of the Berlin Congress, 371—of the proclamation of the French Regency over Tunisia, 372—Triple Alliance, 373—hatred of Austria, 373, 376—relations with Germany, 374 — Great Britain, 375, 387—France, 375—views of the 'Nationalists,' 377—the Balkan wars, 378—policy of San Giuliano, 378-382—relations with Greece, 380, 386—policy of neutrality, 382-384 — characteristics of Baron Sonnino, 384—joins the Triple Entente, 385.

J.

Jäckh, Prof., 'Das grössere Mitteleuropa,' 158, 159.

Japan, work of the navy, 475—cotton industry, 535.

Jennings, H. J., 'Our National Debt,' 160.

Jews, belief in the hope of immortality, 12.

K.

Kellogg, Prof. V., 'Eugenics and Militarism,' extract from, 23.

Kingsley, Rev. Charles, interest in wildflowers, 447.

Kitchener, Lord, Secretary for War, prediction on the length of the war, 224, 228—policy in the Dardanelles, 512, 526—autocratic methods, 514—misgivings, 518—reluctance to send troops to Gallipoli, 524.

Kurth, Prof. G., 'Étude Critique sur Jean d'Outremeuse,' 337.

L.

Lancashire, cotton trade industry, 536–539.

Leo XIII, Pope, character of his policy, 478, 491.

Levy, Prof. Hermann, 'Monopoly and Competition,' 557.

Leyland, John, 'The Navy and Its Work in the War,' 95.

Lister, Lord, interest in wildflowers, 451.

M.

Macedonia, military operations in, 250–253.

Mackay, Dr, 'Der Vierbund,' extract from, 145.

Macrosty, H. W., 'The Trust Movement in British Industry,' 557.

Mahan, Admiral, on the influence of Sea Power, 105.

Malan, Mr, on Imperial Federation, 140.

Mandeville, The Travels of Sir John, 331—evidence of his monument and epitaph, 332—meeting with John ad Barbam, 333—inventions of Jean d'Outremeuse, 334—imaginary hero, 335—literary works, 336–339—'Mirror of Histories,' 336–338—compared with Lucian's 'True Tale,' 339—'Fabliau de Coquaigne,' 340—style of the Travels, ib.—appropriation of facts, 342–344—quaint fancy and inventive genius, 344—kinship with Card. Jacques de Vitry, ib.—views on Infidels, 345—impartial judgment on religions, 346–352—references to the Papacy, 349—the Wycliffite movement, 350—character of his writing, 351.

McCulloch, Mr, on war expenditure, 162.

McKenna, Rt Hon. R., estimate of the National Debt, 160 note.

Méline, M., agricultural policy, 180.

Merriman, Mr, on future relations with Great Britain, 141.

Mesopotamia, military operations in, 583–590.

Middleton, John Page, 'Cyprus under British Rule,' 401.

Middleton, T. H., report on the 'Recent Development of German Agriculture,' 426.

Military Service Bill, 231.

Mill, John Stuart, study of botany, 441.

Miller, William, 'The Foreign Policy of Italy,' 369.

Mohr, Dr F., 'Der Kampf um deutsche Kulturarbeit im nahen Orient,' extract from, 145.

Monteagle, Lord, 'The Irish Problem,' 558.

Montégut, M. E., views on 'The Travels of Sir J. Mandeville,' 347, 351.

Moreland, W. H., 'The Industrial Movement in India,' 297.

'Morning Herald, The,' 354.

Mortimer, J. H., friendship with J. Zoffany, 42.

Moseley, Sydney A., 'The Dardanelles Report,' 511.

Motor, The Development of the Agricultural, 194—reasons for the failure, 195—result of competitive trials, 196, 202—in France, 196–199—Germany, 199—Great Britain, 199–202—use of the two-furrow plough, 199—the 'Caterpillar' type, 200—attempts to secure adhesion, ib.—adoption of the co-operative principle, 201.

Mudford, W. H., editor of the 'Standard,' 353, 358.

Münsterberg, Prof., 'Germany, England and the United States to be future allies,' 276.

Murray, Lieut.-General Sir J. W., position on the War Council, 513–515.

Murry, J. M., 'The Works of Paul Claudel,' 78.

Music of Wildflowers, The, 440. See Wildflowers.

Myers, F., 'Science and a Future Life,' extract from, 11.

N.

National Debt, Our, 160. See Debt.

National Government, character, 220.

Naumann, Herr, 'Mitteleuropa,' 264.

Navy, The, and Its Work in the War, 95—organisation, 96—in command of the North Sea, 98, 100—benefits of immunity from invasion, 98—blockade of Germany, 99, 105–107—business of the Fleet, 100—views of Admirals, 101—dependence upon imports, 102—aim of command of the sea, ib.—operations of enemy cruisers, 103—estimated loss of shipping, ib.—depredations of submarines, 104—cause of the rise in the price of commodities, 105—limitations of naval power, 107–109—magnitude of the work, 109–112.

Near and Middle East, German War Literature on the, 144. See German.

'New Republic,' articles in, 278, 281.

New Zealand, views on Imperial Unity, 125–134. See Imperial.

O.

Ollivier, Emile, 'History of the Liberal Empire,' 390.

Outremeuse, Jean d', fictitious travels, 334—literary works, 336—'Mirror of Histories,' 336–338. See Mandeville.

P.

Paish, Sir G., estimate of the National Income, 168 note.

Papendieck, C. L. H., 'Court and Private Life in the Time of Queen Charlotte,' 47.

Pattison, Mark, 'Essays,' extract from, 477.

Peace, Germany, The United States and, 263. See Germany.

Pernot, Maurice, 'La Politique de Pie X,' 481.

Pius X, The Pontificate of, 477—characteristics, 479–481—his Secretary, 480—mercilessness, 481—watchword, ib.—views against Modernism, 482—relations with France, 483–486—views on Italian politics, 487—relations with Germany, 488—reconstruction of the Curia, 489—result of his achievement on Catholicism, 490–492.

Poland, result of the partition, 399.

Political Crisis, The Recent, 219—the four periods, ib.—fall of the Coalition Ministry, 220, 239—the National Government, 220—result of the war on internal dissensions, 221—indignation of the friends of Germany, 222—disadvantage of unpreparedness for war, 223—action of the Liberal Government during the second period of the war, 224–226—Coalition formed, 226—decline of national unity, 227—losses in the war, 228—character of the Coalition, 229—views of the 'optimists,' 230—the new Military Service Bill, 231—position of Mr Asquith, 232—reasons for the fall of the Coalition, 233, 240—discontent of the public with the methods of the Government, 233–239—Mr Lloyd George's administration, 239—influence of the Press, 240—period of reconstruction, 242.

Pollard, A. W., 'The Travels of Sir John Mandeville,' edited by, 343 et seq.

Pordenone, Odoric de, mission to the Far East, 341.

Press, Old and New in the Daily, 353—'Observator,' 354—the 'Morning Herald,' ib.—'Evening Standard,' 355—the 'Standard,' 356—Capt. Hamber, the editor, ib.—members of the staff, 357—political views, ib.—W. H. Mudford, editor and manager, 358—ideal of editorial duty, 359-363—war correspondents, 361—compared with Delane, 363—the leader-writer, 364—responsibility of Delane for blunders, 365—influence of the Press, 366—the 'Times,' 367.

Primrose, Sir Henry, Report of his Committee on Irish Finance, 564.

Public Records' Commission, Reports, 501-503, 509.

R.

Race, The, and The War, 17—result of war on mankind, 18, 22—theory of Natural Selection, 18—views of the Germans, 19—three chief races of Europe, 20—racial degeneration of a long war, 21-25—result in France, 22-24—loss of life in the old Regular Army, 26—among officers, 27—alleged evils of military training and barrack life, ib.—beneficial effect of military training, 28—result of the voluntary restriction of births, 29—economic causes, 30—increase of pensions, 31—reform of the income tax, 32-36—death duties, 36—benefit from early marriages, 37—retirement of the older generation, ib.

Randall, H. J., review of Prof. Dicey's work, extract from, 129.

Reinach, Joseph, 'The Origins of the Franco-German War,' 389.

Ripley, Prof. W. Z., 'The Races of Europe,' extract from, 21.

Rohde, Hans, 'Deutschland in Vorderasien,' 155-157.

Roloff, Prof. G., 'Eine Aegyptische Expedition als Kampfmittel gegen England,' extract from, 146, 148, 154.

Rosebery, Lord, prediction after the war, 167.

Rousseau, Jean Jacques, interest in wildflowers, 440.

Royal Flying Corps, attacks on, 205. See Aircraft.

Rumania, military operations, 253—261—loss of Törzburg, 255—Craiova occupied by the Germans, ib.—retreat from the Arges, 256—Bucarest occupied, ib.—reinforced by Russian troops, 257—evacuation of the Dobrudja, 257, 261—the Brasso group of passes, 258.

Ruskin, John, Preface to the 'Crown of Wild Olive,' extract from, 5.

Russia, military operations, 253, 581—in Rumania, 256—work of the navy, 463—construction of ships, 464—naval policy, 465. See Fleets.

S.

San Giuliano, Marchese Di, character of his foreign policy, 378-382—'Letters from Albania,' 381—death 383.

Schiff, J., correspondence with Dr Eliot, 274.

Sinha, Sir S. P., on the increase of the Indian cotton duty, 532.

Smith, Adam, 'The Wealth of Nations,' 167.

Smith, Thomas F. A., 'German War Literature on the Near and Middle East,' 144.

Smith-Gordon, Lionel, 'The State and Agriculture,' 178—'Agricultural Cooperation in Germany,' 424.

Sonnino, Baron, character of his policy, 384.

Spedding, Rosamund F., 'The Rural Prosperity of France,' 314.

'Standard, The,' 353—'The Evening,' 355.

State, The, and Agriculture, 178. See Agriculture.

Steel and Iron, German, 542. See German.

Submarines, German, depredations, 104.

Sydenham, Lord, of Combe, 'Indian Cotton Duties,' 528.

T.

Taussig, Prof. F. W., 'Tariff History of the United States,' 546—'Some Aspects of the Tariff Question,' extract from, ib.

Tennyson, Charles, 'Johann Zoffany,' 39.

Tennyson, Lord, allusions to wild-flowers in his poems, 443.

Tibetan Abbeys, Some, in China, 59. See China.

Turkey, relations with Germany, 146—proposals for the future, 147—number of foreign schools, 158—military operations in Mesopotamia, 583–590—retreat, 585—attack at Sanna-i-Yat, ib.—passage of the Tigris forced, 586–589—capture of Baghdad, 589.

U.

Ulster, claim to exclusion, 560.

Underwood, F. M., 'United Italy,' 370.

United States, Germany and Peace, 263—change in the feeling, 264, 290—President Wilson's conduct of foreign relations, 273—origin of the Peace Note, ib.—the 'peace' movement, 274—J. Schiff's correspondence with Dr Eliot, 274-276—Prof. Münsterberg's article, 276—terms of peace communicated by Germany, 278—Mr Schiff urges intervention, 280—views of the 'New Republic,' 281—'Cosmos,' 282—dislike of England, 284—ignorance of foreign affairs, ib.—propaganda of German agents, 285—result of the censorship, ib.—friction through interference with trade, 286—the Economic Conference in Paris, ib.—territorial policy of the Allies, 287—the Irish rebellion, ib.—dissatisfaction with the President's policy, 288—occult power of haute finance, ib.—profits from the export of munitions, 289—personal motives of the President, 290—statements in his Note, 291, 294—reply of the Allies, 295.

United States, cotton trade, 538—iron and steel industry, 543.

V.

Vaughan, John, 'The Music of Wild-flowers,' 440.

Vitry, Card. Jacques de, Oriental History, 344.

W.

Wales, demand for the establishment of a separate Record Office, 510.

War, The Archives of the, 494. See Archives.

War, The Course of the, 245, 570—inactivity caused by the weather, 245—military operations on the Western front, 246–249, 570–575, 590—Italian, 250—Macedonian, 250–253—Russian, 253, 581—Rumanian, 253–261—retreat of the Germans from the Ancre valley, 571–573, 575—result of raids, 573—air-service, 576—reasons for their retreat, 577–580—projected operations in Italy, 580—military operations on the Eastern front, 581—result of the submarine war, 583—operations in Mesopotamia, 583–590—retreat of the Turks, 585—attack at Sanna-i-Yat, ib.—forcing the passage of the Tigris, 586–589—capture of Baghdad, 589.

War, The Navy and Its Work in the, 95. See Navy.

War, The, and the Race, 17. See Race.

War Time, Aircraft Politics in, 203. See Aircraft.

War Council, members of the, 513.

Webb, Sidney, 'How to pay for the War,' 170.

Weiler, W., 'Der Krieg gegen England,' extract from, 155.

Whetham, W. C. D., 'The War and the Race,' 17.

Wildflowers, The Music of, 440—interest of J. J. Rousseau in flowers, ib.—J. S. Mill, 441—J. Clare, 443—Tennyson, ib.—Gray, 444—Crabbe, 444-446—M. Arnold, 446—C. Kingsley, 447—Prof. Hort, 448—Prof. Cowell, 449—physicians, 451.

Wilson, President, character of his Peace Note, 273. See United States.

Wilson, Richard, friendship with J. Zoffany, 42.

Wilson, Sir A., position on the War Council, 513.

Winterstetten, Dr K. von, 'Die Lage der Berlin—Bagdad-Politik,' 149.

Wolseley, Sir Garnet, High Commissioner of Cyprus, 403.

Wyatt, Horace, 'The Development of the Agricultural Motor,' 194.

Z.

Zacher, A., 'Italien von Heute,' 370.

Zoffany, Johann, 39—characteristics as an artist, ib.—early years, 41—stage pictures, 42—friends, 42, 44—wife, 42—appearance, 43—portraits, 44-46, 49, 52—nominated member of the Royal Academy, 44—patrons, 44, 46, 49—withdraws from Capt. Cook's second expedition, 46—commission to Florence, ib.—second marriage, 47—death of his son, ib.—title of Baron of the Holy Roman Empire, 48—strokes of paralysis and return to England, 48, 55—prosperity and position, 49—rapidity of execution, 50—visit to India, 51—55—Painter to the Court of Oudh, 52—Indian paintings, 52, 54—altarpiece, 53—portrait of Miss Farren, 55—domestic troubles, 56—portrait of Dr Horn, ib.—pictures for Churches, 57—exhibits in the Royal Academy, 58—death, ib.

END OF THE TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SEVENTH VOLUME.

PRINTED BY WILLIAM CLOWES AND SONS, LIMITED,
LONDON AND BECCLES, ENGLAND.